

Catalogue of titles available for classroom use.

Whose University Is It?

48 minutes/DVD

$250.00

A powerful and dramatic documentary about the passionate struggle of a community determined to resist the corporatization of their university campus.

subject:
Political science,
Universities,
Privatization,
Education

Jajo's Secret

48 minutes/DVD

$250.00

A gripping documentary about the internment of Ukrainians by the Canadian government during WW1. Includes a treasure trove of rare documents, photos and newspaper articles from the time. Ukrainian subtitles.

subject:
Canadian History
Ukrainian studies
World War One
War Measures Act

Life Under Mike

48 minutes/DVD

$250.00

A powerful, gripping expose on the neo-conservative "common sense revolution" of Ontario Premier Mike Harris. Still relevant in today's environment of big tax cuts and reduced government services.

subject:
Political Science,
Canadian studies,
Economics,
Social justice

A Gathering In Denendeh

60 minutes/DVD

$200.00

A powerful film that explores the unique culture and history of the Dene Nation in Canada's north as they prepare for the visit of Pope John Paul II in 1984. Winner of the Golden Sheaf Award at the Yorkton Short Film Festival.

subject:
Native studies,
Canadian studies,
Religious studies,
History

eyeball head groove

76 minutes/DVD

$200.00

When three university students decide to occupy their president's office the political quickly becomes personal. Shot on miniDv, at 24p, this film is a great example of new indie cinema.

subject:
Student activism
Filmmaking
Political science

The Yexas

30 minutes/DVD

$150.00

From the studio to the gallery, filmmaker Gary Nichol offers up a fascinating and intimate glimpse into the work of renowned Aboriginal Artists Wayne and Leo Yerxa.

subject:
Native studies,
Canadian studies,
Art and drawing,
Canadian Art history

Nature's Gallery

30 minutes/DVD

$150.00

World renowned Canadian naturalist painter, Michael Duma, talks candidly about his work, offering a rare glimpse into his inspirational process and his technique.

subject:
Canadian studies,
Art and drawing,
Canadian Art history

Jean Luc Grondin

30 minutes/DVD

$150.00

A captivating look at the art of internationally acclaimed Canadian artist Jean Luc Grondin. Includes rare and exclusive interviews with Grondin talking about his work and his technique.

subject:
Environment
Canadian studies,
Art and drawing,
Canadian Art history

Germinio Pio Politi

23 minutes/DVD

$150.00

Directed by filmmaker and fellow painter Joel Richardson, this intimate portrait offers a rare and compelling glimpse into the history, influences and techniques of one of the Canada's most gifted painters.

subject:
Multi cultural studies,
Canadian studies,
Art and drawing,
Canadian Art history

Diary Of A Railroad

10 minutes/DVD

$100.00

An award winning short docu-drama that reveals the history behind the first railway tunnel built in North America, opened in Brockville, Ontario in 1860.

subject:
Railway history,
Canadian studies,
Industrial Revolution

contact: Guerrilla Films, 2938 Dundas Street west, Toronto, Ontario, M6P 4E7
647-895-0212; info@guerrillafilms.com

All items are subject to a $10 shipping and handling fee.